The recent Board of Directors also reported on the sale of cigars in non-state sector establishments

New prices for the marketing of meat products were approved in the recent Board of Directors, which is part of the actions undertaken in the Isle of Youth to encourage self-sufficiency.

Adiel Morera Macías, Municipal Mayor, highlighted the importance that agricultural workers of the different productive forms deliver their productions to established points of sale, in such a way as to contribute to the feeding of the inhabitants and also to their earnings.

In this regard, he specified that from this Monday, October 19, the modifications will be the following:

Producto	Compra al productor	Venta a población
Cerdo de capa oscura	22.00 pesos la libra	25.00 pesos la libra
Conejo	26.00 pesos la libra	30.00 pesos la libra
Ovino-caprino	18.00 pesos la libra	20.00 pesos la libra
Pollo criollo	12.00 pesos la libra	14.00 pesos la libra
Huevo		1.00 peso la unidad

Regarding self-employment and specifically the punching activity, he pointed out that the strikeouts will cost ten pesos; At the same time, he stated about the sale of cigars in establishments belonging to this sector that those marketed in national currency, that is, Populares, Criollos, Titanes or Aromas, cannot be offered, only those sold in freely convertible currency, with a value above the cost of the product amounting to five pesos.
