

Deputy discusses the importance of legal texts in the Cuban Parliament

Category: News

Created: Monday, 26 October 2020 13:23 - Last Updated: Monday, 26 October 2020 13:23

Written by webmaster

Hits: 799

Starting today, October 26, 2020, the National Assembly of People's Power will hold a virtual session throughout the country, the topics of which include the confrontation with COVID-19, the progress of the economic and social strategy, monetary regulation and legislative activity. , prior to the celebration, next day 28, of the V Ordinary Period of Sessions of the IX Legislature.

The process of consultation and approval of the four draft laws is an opportunity to contribute to the transparency of legality in Cuba, said Liván Fuentes Álvarez, deputy to the Cuban Parliament, president of the Municipal Assembly of People's Power and delegate of the constituency 76 from the Atanagildo Cajigal town in this special municipality.

Deputy discusses the importance of legal texts in the Cuban Parliament

Category: News

Created: Monday, 26 October 2020 13:23 - Last Updated: Monday, 26 October 2020 13:23

Written by webmaster

Hits: 799

He stated that this is an enriching experience because, based on the opinions and contributions to the collective discussion of these documents, the integrality and quality of these texts referring to the: Foreign Service Law Project, Organization Law Project and functioning of the Council of Ministers, Bill of the President and Vice President of the Republic and Bill of Revocation of those elected to the organs of People's Power, which will be submitted for approval today.

For your better understanding, at Isla de la Juventud we involve professionals from the local university's law career in order to clarify doubts and know the legal terms of the documents and thus achieve a better understanding of the explanations of the Law Degree and Doctor of Science José Luis Toledo Santander, President of the Constitutional and Legal Affairs Commission of the National Assembly of People's Power, said.

He added that this type of exercise becomes an action of collective self-preparation and training, to be able to explain this process to the delegates of the territory, the Administration Council and the people.

These days of discussion offer work tools at the local level, in order to integrate citizen participation in processes of direction, management and control of community actions, he stressed.

He pointed out that this exercise has allowed him to know and understand the scope of the nation's policy regarding the election of the country's leaders and the functioning of the Council of Ministers, in order to better and more efficiently manage resources, the progress of the strategy economic and social, monetary ordering and legislative activity.

These priorities on Cuba's agenda are virtually on the parliamentary table today.

The session tomorrow, October 27, Homero Acosta Álvarez, secretary of the ANPP and the Council of State, will be informative, based on the interventions of the Minister of Health, José Angel Portal Miranda, and the Head of the Permanent Commission for the Implementation and Development, Marino Murillo Jorge, on facing the pandemic from all areas and the progress of the ordering task, respectively, refers to a publication taken from the Cuban News Agency.