It is only granted to older adults or people with disabilities who live alone, without family members obliged to provide help or living with others, and who are bedridden or with restricted mobility.

The provision of the service may be evaluated in nuclei made up of more than one cohabitant, if they all have severe disabilities or disabling diseases and they do not have forced relatives.

Requirements to be met by the worker who occupies the position of Social Worker at Home are:

1. Maintain adequate social and moral conduct.
2. Accredited medical certificate, stable health status, absence of risky pathologies and a history of psychiatric disorders.
3. Over 18 years old.
