The different procedures carried out in our Driving License Units are personal.

All applicants are advised that the application documents for obtaining a new title or a new category once the procedures have begun in a certain province are not valid in another province, so it must start again from the beginning.

Approximate duration time:

Obtaining a medical certificate: this is given in the duration of a medical consultation, except those that, due to their particularities, carry out other procedures as determined by the medical commission. Obtaining the certificate endorsed by the Ministry of Transport and the National Organ in charge of traffic safety: They are given in the estimated time that the institutions determine that the driver is ready to carry out said activity.
